

HOT OFF THE PRESS: New Poetry Anthology By and About Persons with Disabilities

PERSPECTIVES: POETRY CONCERNING AUTISM AND OTHER DISABILITIES edited by James Wagner and Marc Rosen With poetry from over 50 poets, the Perspectives

Anthology through the art of poetry, conveys different points of view or perspectives concerning the autism spectrum and other neurological, psychological, social, and communicative disabilities. The poems in this volume are from those with disabilities, by those with disabilities, about those with disabilities, as well as from the point of views of family and friends of those affected. Perspectives hopes that its poetry will convey not only understanding, but unity, and a sense that despite different perspectives and different ways of living life, we are all human.

With submissions from over 4 continents, and over 50 poets contributing to this volume, Perspectives contains the works of professional poets, amateur poets, autism advocates, autism bloggers, and parents, friends, and those affected by autism or other disabilities.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING

There is no voice more important in a community than the voice of those affected. The publication of Perspectives Anthology: Poetry Concerning Autism and Other Disabilities provides moving examples of these voices. The more we hear from individuals on the autism spectrum the more we can understand their varied experiences and extraordinary talents.

Patricia R. Schissel, LMSW

"It is rare for an anthology of poetry to be so moving yet so educational. The autism and disability communities should embrace this poignant collection." ~Dana Commandatore, RethinkingAutism.com
